

Up the Hill & Berrying.

On a sunny summer morning, Early as the dew was dry,
Up the hill I went a berrying—Need I tell you—tell you why?
Farmer Davis had a daughter,
And it happened that I knew,
On each sunny morning, Jenny Up the hill went berrying too.

Lonely work in picking berries, So I joined her on the hill;
"Jenny, dear," said I, "your basket's Quite too large for one to fill."
So we staid—we two—to fill it—Jenny talking—I was still—Leading where the hill was steepest, Picking berries up the hill.

"This is up-hill work," said Jenny;
"So is life," said I—"shall we Climb it, each alone, or Jenny, Will you come and climb with me?"
Redder than the blushing berries, Jenny's cheeks a moment grew While, without delay, she answered:
"I will come and climb with you."

Sea Bathing a Cure for Love.

Young men—youths of America—ardent strangers—take warning, and before you marry, propose a trip to Newport, and get the beloved object of your affection to indulge in sea bathing, and you dive down and see her do it—and oh! if you like her as well after that trial, be assured yours is beyond alls and crinolines—a love likely to last, and that you may go in safely, and win; but if, as in my case, you were taken by the elegant sylph like figure of Mrs.
Stunner—the abundant form, and the logical inference from the known to the unknown, and had lain awake bemoaning that she belonged to another, and calculating on the probability of Mr. S. being carried off by a fit, and yourself proposing to the widow; if, I say, your enchantment arose from the outward, visible beauty, threading the maze of the dance, or giving an indescribable undulation in the promenade—why then don't go and see Mrs. Stunner bathe, or you will never believe that that figure, half man and half woman, with snipe like extremities, and with all absence of roundness, can be the bank wherein you last night deposited your heart's affections.
That Mrs. Stunner! How you laugh in your sleeve, the next time you meet Mr. S., and how you enjoy the next victim you see melting beneath those flashing eyes. Your mortified vanity is quite appeased, and you are reconciled to your bachelor fate.

THE ULTIMATE OF IMPERANCE.—No man and no woman is safe, who has once formed the fatal habit of looking to drink for solace, or cheerfulness, or comfort.
While the world goes well they will likely be temperate; but the habit is built; the railroad to destruction is out ready for use, the rails are laid down, the station houses erected, and the train is on the line waiting only for the locomotive; it comes to us, it grapples us, and away we go in a moment, down the line we have been years constructing, like a flash of lightning, to the deuce.
—Charles Reade.

A man remarked, the other day, that on his wedding day, he had an idea that married life would be all sunshine; but it proved all moonshine.

UNPRECEDENTED DISCOVERIES!

INFORMATION has just been received that five thousand Indians have collected themselves together in the vicinity of Pike's Peak with a view of driving out the whites already there, and preventing further immigration. But this information is by no means reliable. However, it is a fact that

OFFICE AT THE EMPORIA HOUSE.

WITH THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE New Year I wish to return my hearty thanks for the liberal support and encouragement that has been extended to me in my business for the past two years. This office was opened here about two years ago, not with the expectation of realizing a fortune, but with the hope of contributing something toward the settlement and improvement of this beautiful valley, by means of direct personal contact, and by furnishing information to those at the East who were seeking homes and occupation at the West. I have endeavored to keep steadily in view the Future of this town and country, and by means of considerable labor and expense, regardless of present profit, my business is now established upon a firm and reliable basis; and I can offer to all who entrust their business to my care, an intimate knowledge of the country, its inhabitants, and their circumstances, derived from extensive travel, and constant intercourse with settlers, upon and since their arrival. I claim to be thoroughly conversant with the wants and opportunities of this country, and shall never advise correspondents or emigrants aught they cannot realize. My facilities for the transaction of business are unequalled by any office in the Neosho Valley. I shall attend all the Government Land Sales, and can safely say to capitalists and others who desire to invest in Western land that I know I can buy better land for less money, than you could yourselves if present. Emigrants in search of claims or eligible situations for business can always save time and money by calling at this office. Late plats showing all unoccupied land, always on hand. Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, Leases, Co-partnerships, and all other legal documents prepared with care, and recorded when desired.

Proof Papers,
Declarations, and Affidavits, made and executed perfect. In fact, everything connected with the right of Pre-emption attended to with promptness and fidelity. Land Warrants and Money land on commission or joint account, and good bargains guaranteed in all cases. Those having Land, Town property or claims to sell can usually find a ready sale through this office, as I advertise largely, both in Territorial and Eastern papers. Those wishing to buy can always find a variety to choose from and good bargains. I will pay taxes for non-residents, and collect debts in all the Neosho river countries.

I intend, the ensuing spring, or as soon as the demand will warrant, to commence a series of
